

MANY CLAIMS AT MEETING OF BOARD

CLAIMS DAY BRINGS FLOOD OF OVER 600 BILLS; STEPS TAKEN FOR BETTER DRAINAGE IN THE REGION OF THE CEMETERIES.

Monday was claims day for the county supervisors and a busy day resulted, over 600 claims on the county treasury being presented for expenses during August. All but two of these were passed, the two held up being bills presented by the Sarsfield Taxi Company of Redwood City, one of these being for $25 for taking William Hightower to San Francisco and return, the other a charge of $1.50 for taking Sheriff Sheehan from his home to the jail at Redwood. Both were considered excessive, and the county clerk was instructed to so inform the taxi company.

On motion of Supervisor Hickey, seconded by Supervisor MacBain, County Engineer George A. Kneese was instructed to prepare plans and specifications for digging a ditch to carry off the storm and drain waters at the cemeteries, which have heretofore flooded the highway at that point. The ditch is to run to a culvert under the highway, which will take the water to a ditch on the other side and on down the creek bottom to the bay.

Supervisor MacBain was granted permission by the board to close the Portola road for a period of two weeks.

Supervisor Brown of the Second township was authorized to repair the guard fences on the Belmont to Crystal Springs Lake road.

The report of the County Social Service for July was submitted by Executive Secretary Florence Boggs, showing expenditures of $5906.61, and for August, showing expenditures of $6143.54. Both were ordered accepted.

Claims of County Horticultural Commissioner A. W. Tate for work done on the Schumacher property were referred to the district attorney, who suggested they be paid and collections made from the owners of the property.

At the suggestion of Chairman Thompson, the clerk was instructed to write to all county officers using county automobiles or motorcycles that the county purchasing agent must be notified before repairs were ordered.

Supervisor Manuel Francis of the Fourth township was granted permission by the board to leave the state for ten days.

The board adjourned at 1:40, to meet again Monday, September 19th.

MISSING U. C. STUDENT IN SO. S. F. HOTEL

Registered at Hotel but Disappeared, Again Being Found at Santa Cruz; Uncle Gives Whereabouts Tip.

Miss Margaret Montgomery, the 20-year-old University of California student who has been missing since August 15th, was found in Santa Cruz by officers in that city Tuesday and brought to South San Francisco by City Marshal C. C. Conrad. The girl, who had been sought throughout San Mateo county for several days, was located when her uncle, Jack Friel, employed at the Western Pipe and Steel Company here, made the remark that she was probably at Santa Cruz. It was discovered that the girl had been in this city and had registered at a hotel here. This was not the hotel where Friel was staying, but evidence proved that Friel was well posted as to Miss Montgomery's movements.

Felix Montgomery, father of the missing girl, arrived in this city Tuesday and took his daughter away with him. He was accompanied by his attorney, Irwin T. Quinn, former vice-commander of the American Legion. The girl stated that she had left the university because of differences with her father regarding certain studies she wished to take up, and that she was seeking employment. Considerable mystery still surrounds the girl's disappearance and her stopping at a hotel in this city.

Funeral services will be held from Miss Coffinberry's late residence on Grand avenue at 9 o'clock this morning. Following the funeral the body will be sent to Gettysburg, Pa. Miss Coffinberry's former home, for interment. Mrs. Elizabeth Coffinberry will accompany the body. The deceased had been a resident of this city about two years. She was prominent in the affairs of the Methodist church and leaves a circle of warm friends to mourn her loss.

HYLAND-O'CONNELL WEDDING IN THIS CITY WEDNESDAY

Daniel Hyland and Miss Norine O'Connell were quietly married at All Souls' Church Wednesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, only relatives and close friends being in attendance. William J. Hyland, brother of the groom, acted as best man, while Miss Bernice O'Connell, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid. Father J. P. Moran officiated at the ceremony. Following the wedding the bridal party left for San Francisco, where a wedding supper was enjoyed, after which the happy couple departed for Sacramento, where a honeymoon of about a week's duration will be spent. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Hyland will occupy a suite at the Hage apartments.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. O'Connell, who lives on Grand avenue. The young lady has lived in this city for about five years and in that time has made a wide circle of friends. For some time she has been employed as switchboard operator at the Western Meat Company's office here.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hyland of Linden avenue and is one of the best-known young men in town, being prominent in fraternal circles. He has lived in South San Francisco twenty-three years. He is now employed at the Virden Packing Company.

FOOD PRODUCTS MANUFACTURING CO. TO BUILD GREAT MODERN PLANT IN SO. S. F.

Formal announcement was made this week of the coming of another great industrial company in South San Francisco. The latest acquisition to the manufacturing colony in this city is the Fontana Food Products Company. The new firm has already started work on its site between the Southern Pacific railroad line and San Bruno road, near the plants of the Pacific Car and Equipment Co. and the Enterprise Foundry. Here the Food Products Co. has secured eight and a half acres and will erect a class A reinforced concrete plant to cost approximately $500,000. The building will be of the most modern design, to afford a perfect sanitary food factory. Macaroni is to be the principal product of the new plant. The plans for the mammoth plant call for the largest, most sanitary and most modern macaroni factory in the United States.

Huge plant of the Fontana Food Products Company to be erected in this city. Work upon the site for the factory is already under way.

The management of the proposed factory made an extended survey of the Eastern food manufacturing centers before deciding to locate in South San Francisco. The site here was chosen because of its unexcelled transportation facilities, the equable climate in this section, the available labor supply, and because the location was adjacent to the Pacific Coast's largest distributing center for domestic and export trade.

When the great plant gets to working it will employ 500 people during the busy season, this number of employees being reduced to about 100 during the remainder of the year. The first unit to be built will be equipped with the latest of American and European machinery of special design for the manufacture of macaroni and other paste products and specialties. The main product is to be semolina macaroni, which will be put up in sanitary packages, and the management believes that in this region the favorable climate and raw material supply will make for the highest grade of their product and one of unvarying quality.

As the picture (made from the architect's drawing) shows, part of the plant will be three stories in height and part four stories, with power plant and other accessories, the latter including a box factory, the company planning to make its own boxes at the plant:

The personnel of the new company has been announced, as follows:

M. E. Fontana, president.
L. R. Podesta, vice-president.
A. E. Sbarboro, treasurer.
Louise S. Beedy, secretary.

M. E. Fontana has been actively engaged in the canning business for the past twenty years, being connected with the California Packing Corporation. L. R. Podesta has been the owner and manager of the Pioneer Macaroni Company, the oldest and largest macaroni manufacturing company on the Pacific Coast.

A. E. Sbarboro is cashier of the Italian-American Bank of San Francisco.

COUNTY TAX RATE FIXED BY SUPERVISORS

Rate One Cent Lower Than Last Year; Levy for Colma-So. S. F. Road Lost.

The tax rate for San Mateo county for the fiscal year 1921-1922, as fixed by the board of supervisors at their meeting last week is $2.04 inside of incorporated cities and towns and $2.54 outside of incorporated cities and towns. This is a decrease of 1 cent from the tax rate of last year. The new levy includes 23 cents for the completion of the Pescadero to the Santa Cruz county line highway.

The new rate was established by the supervisors after they had spent several hours in careful consideration of the estimate prepared by the county auditor. The fund for general county purposes was raised .022 and salary 4 cents, necessary on account of the increase in deputies' salaries allowed under the county government act. The Social Service was given a 1 cent raise, as was also the county library. The maturing of the first series of $40,000 1913 county highway bonds in 1922 made it necessary to raise the rate for this fund from 18 to 23 cents, and an increase of 4 cents in the county high school maintenance fund to take care of additional costs connected with high school education and transportation facilities established during the year. The other items in the tax levy remain practically the same as last year.

Supervisor Hickey endeavored to get an additional levy of 9 cents for the construction of a highway to connect the highway at Colma with the highway at South San Francisco, he arguing that this would help relieve the serious traffic situation in the north end of the county and would serve as an artery for the proposed eastside highway.

"PACIFIC CITY" NAME OF BEACH RESORT

Promoter Tells Chamber Members of Plans for New Pleasure Town.

"Pacific City"—the embryonic amusement center of northern California. "Pacific City" is the name of the enterprise that Nat Messer, San Francisco realty dealer, is interested in developing at San Mateo beach. Messer Monday night thrilled 200 and some odd members of the Three Cities Chamber of Commerce who packed the San Mateo city hall as he told of his plans for the development of the bathing beach in that city. "We have all the money we want," said Messer. "The project hinges largely upon the ability of the Howard Estate Company to deliver the property free of all incumbrances, and Secretary Stollery says he can do that. We want San Mateo and Burlingame to assist us in constructing highways to the beach and in taking care of proper sanitation."

Some $200,000 will be expended in permanent buildings, according to Messer, and a large acreage of the latest and oldest amusement concessions, aggregating $800,000, will be parked in the coming resort. Messer also asked the Three Cities Chamber of Commerce to pull for a motor speedway at that place. "It is much better there than at San Carlos, Redwood City or any other place on the peninsula," declared Messer.

ELECTROLIER LIGHTS URGED FOR GRAND AVE.

Chamber of Commerce Backs Move to Get Better Lighting for Main Street; Studios to Show Views.

There was a large gathering of members of the Chamber of Commerce at the meeting held Tuesday evening. One of the most noteworthy matters brought up was the establishment in this city of an electrolier lighting system for Grand avenue. Secretary H. E. Smith was instructed to communicate with the city trustees and urge such a lighting system.

Secretary Smith was appointed a committee of one to take up with the different factories the matter of getting Western Union "self-winding" clocks put in at their plants. This action was taken at the request of several of the factories.

A communication was received from the Pacific Studios Corporation of San Mateo, requesting a place in this city to show pictures of how motion pictures are made at the San Mateo plant. H. E. Smith, E. C. Peck, and F. A. Cunningham were appointed a committee to secure a place here for the showing of these pictures.

A committee, consisting of E. C. Peck, B. H. Truax, W. H. Coffinberry, Henry Minucciani, L. G. Hardy, and F. A. Cunningham, was appointed to secure additional members for the Chamber. The secretary was instructed to communicate with newcomers to town, whenever possible, and urge them to join the Chamber.

Mr. Bruno addressed the Chamber, urging support of the Junior Social Athletic Club recently formed here. It was decided to refer this to the Junior Chamber of Commerce, as it was deemed its members could and would co-operate with the boys of the athletic club.

It was brought up that the telephone company was about ready to make its report on the matter of installing additional equipment in this city to take care of its increasing business and on the proposition to give cheaper toll rates to San Francisco.

It is to be an "old clothes" dance and everybody is expected to appear in old clothing.

MRS. LEETS, MEMBER PROMINENT FAMILY, PASSES AWAY SUNDAY

In the death Sunday of Mrs. Albertine Leets, South San Francisco lost a pioneer resident. Mrs. Leets had lived in this city for twenty years. She was a sister of Constable James C. Wallace, Samuel Wallace, and William Wallace and of Mrs. J. Ingram. Together with other members of the Wallace family, Mrs. Leets had been prominent in the social life of this city, especially that centering around All Souls' Church, of which she was a prominent member. Mrs. Leets was 57 years old at the time of her death.

The funeral took place Tuesday morning from her late residence at 407 Grand avenue. A requiem high mass was celebrated at All Souls' Church at 10 a. m., interment following at Holy Cross Cemetery. A large number of sorrowing friends and relatives gathered for the last tribute to the deceased woman and followed the remains to the cemetery.

L. A. MAN SHOT TO DEATH ON HIGHWAY

DYING MAN MAKES STATEMENT THAT SHOOTING WAS DONE BY BANDIT; CIRCUMSTANCES OF CASE POINT TO SUICIDE.

The mystery surrounding the young man found dying from gunshot wounds on the United Railroads track Tuesday night and carried to the South San Francisco Hospital by a street car motorman, was partly cleared Thursday morning when the man made a statement, just previous to his death, to the effect that his name was Normand Howely of 1453 Sixteenth street, Los Angeles, and that he had been shot by a highwayman who accosted him near the cemeteries while he was resting in a small clump of willows, and demanded that he give up his money. The robber stated that he was broke and out of work and must have money. Howely replied that he was also broke and out of work, he said, and then he and the man had an argument, which resulted in the man shooting him in the right temple and twice in the left side. Further than this, Howely would not or could not give any information to those who anxiously hung over his bedside begging him to tell all that he knew. And yet doctors and police state that he was conscious and well able to give all details in regard to everything if he had chosen. This seeming reticence, coupled with the fact that all identification marks had been taken from his clothes, led Constable S. A. Landini, who investigated the case, to doubt Howely's statement and to think that there might be a possibility that he had committed suicide or that he himself had been a holdup man and that some one had shot him.

On Thursday morning a searching party led by Constable Landini thoroughly hunted over the ground where the man was found in a vain endeavor to discover some trace of his supposed slayer or of the gun with which he was shot, but no trace could be found.

Chief of Police of South San Francisco, Clyde C. Conrad, made the statement Thursday that he was inclined to believe there was a possibility that Howely had committed suicide, and if such was the case, he was of the opinion, he said, that he had given the wrong name and address. Communication with Los Angeles police, he stated, had up to a late hour brought no information as to Howely ever having lived there.

When found by the street car motorman, Howely was staggering along the track. He was taken to the South San Francisco Hospital, where he was able to walk from the street car into the building, Conrad stated. A futile effort was made to save his life. Dr. R. S. Irvine and Dr. Glaughlin of San Mateo operated and took out the right kidney, which had been severed by one of the bullets. All efforts were useless, however, and the young man passed away at an early hour Thursday morning. He was taken to Nieri's undertaking parlors, where the inquest will be held by Coroner W. A. Brooke this afternoon (Friday).

Citrus Fruit Growers Fear Forest Depletion Will Seriously Affect Their Increasing Business.

The eaters of Florida oranges and grapefruit may not think of reforestation as in any way affecting their breakfast tables, but the Florida citrus fruit growers have a different point of view. The Florida grapefruit and orange crop now requires on the average more than 12,000,000 boxes yearly to get it to market. By 1930, if production continues to increase in similar ratio to that in recent years, the output will require 40,000,000 boxes annually. Each box requires about 5½ board feet in lumber.

Local southern pine forests are the source of the raw material for these boxes, but the supply is drawn upon also for wooden containers for the products of Florida truck farms.
Truck farm products of the state now call for 13,000,000 boxes annually, and this demand also is growing.

Forest Depletion under methods which do not provide for regrowth has reached a point which makes the question where containers are to come from a matter of very practical concern.

Colored Woman Ready for Any Move the Opponents of Coffee Might Choose to Make.

An estimable colored woman by the name of Dinah is employed by an army officer whom we will call Capt. Jenks.

Mrs. Jenks was telling Dinah one day recently of the various prohibitions which have been effected in the world, and of those which may come about in the years to come.

"They're going to make people stop drinking coffee," Mrs. Jenks smilingly told Dinah. Nothing more was said on the subject.

The next morning Mrs. Jenks noticed that Dinah wore an unusually triumphant smile.

"Why are you so happy this morning, Dinah?" asked the mistress of the house.

"I got enough to last," was the response.

"What?" asked Mrs. Jenks.
Dinah spoke confidentially:

"I went and bought me ten pounds of coffee," she whispered, triumphantly.—Washington Star.

and, of course, inexperienced in

"old-timer" gave him the informa-

"That's funny," said the new owner.
"The fellow that sold me the car said whenever the gasoline indicator passed that mark (pointing to the emergency of one-half gallon left) to be sure and stop at the next gasoline filling station, and it is three miles before I come to one yet."

"What's the trouble?" inquired

"Worse than that. The pressmen have gone on a strike."

SOME EXERCISE.

"And do you take exercise?"
asked the doctor.

"Of course I do, Doc," was the

"When?"

"When? Say, Doc, you ought to through my card index!"

OLD-TIME RESIDENT PAYS COLMA FLYING VISIT

After an absence of twenty-two years or more Charles F. Merrill, postmaster at that time, paid a flying visit to a few old-time friends here last Friday. Mr. Merrill comes from Honolulu, where he has been residing for the past twenty years and is superintendent of public works. He came on a business trip, and left Wednesday for his home, taking with him his wife and daughter, who have been visiting here for the past two months. C. F. Merrill was always an energetic and enterprising man and always foremost for the improvement of Colma at the time of his residence here. He was the first to foresee the future of Colma's vegetable shipping industry, and through his efforts the first shipments were sent from Colma to the East. C. F. Merrill, or "Charlie," as he was familiarly called, was very popular and well liked by everybody, having a kindly and genial disposition. Mr. Merrill, besides being postmaster, was telegraph operator of the old "Morse system" and also conducted at that time in Colma (1894) the first newspaper in this town, known as the "Colma News." Also he advertised himself as the only "Third-Class Photographer in the World." The mention of these facts will carry old timers to a period of about forty years back. Mr. Merrill was unable to visit many of the people he knew, but he inquired for them all, and no doubt those who knew him will be glad to know that Charlie F. Merrill still lives and is in the prime of health.

THE NATURAL BRIDGES OF UTAH

FORTY-FIVE miles north of Bluff, in Southwestern Utah, within a space of about five miles, are three natural bridges which are understood to be the largest of their kind in existence.

Named Sipapu (Gate of Heaven), Kachima (Guardian Spirit) and Owachomo (Rock Mound), these bridges were discovered in 1895. The three constitute a National monument, being so proclaimed by Presidential announcement in 1908.

The largest of the three has an extreme height of 222 feet and is 65 feet thick at the top of the arch, which is 28 feet wide. It has a span of 281 feet, the height of the span being 157 feet.

One has but to fix those figures in his mind to gain a fair idea of the immensity of these wonders which Nature fashioned from the lofty walls of White canyon.

Near the monument are some caves and ruins which are believed to have been the homes of a prehistoric race which inhabited this section.

These bridges are best reached by stage or team from the railroad station at Thompson, Utah, to Monticello, thence by pack-horse—a journey through a strange, deserted-looking, but interesting land.

Obedient Boy.

"Did you deliver my message to Mr. Smith, Tommy?" asked the manager of the new office boy.

"No, sir," replied Tommy. "He was out and his office was locked up."

"Why didn't you wait for him as I told you to do?"

"There was a notice on the door, sir, saying, 'Return immediately,' so I came back here as quickly as I could, sir."—Santa Fe Magazine.

A Fair Warning.

"I think you'll do, but we have a questionnaire for you to fill out, just as a matter of form."

you in advance that I don't know where we get most of our sponges."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

A HARBINGER OF EVIL

An eminent Norwegian prophesies that the United States will soon be overrun with bolsheviki and in the grip of the red terror.

Pleasant prospect!

Having failed dismally in Russia after reducing that country to ruin and starvation, it is but natural that the red hordes should seek for new fields to conquer—and there is none fairer than ours.

The danger lies not in the power of the bolsheviki, but rather in our own indifference. It is difficult for the average American to conceive that any power under the sun could upset our established order of government. The autocratic czar of Russia probably felt much the same—until he ceased to be either an autocrat or a czar.

The strongest of stone walls will crumble if the foundations are persistently undermined. It is so with governments, and even our own is not immune.

For six years or more we have witnessed an orgy of profiteering and gouging and plundering such as has never been dreamed of before. Money lust drove an otherwise sane public mad, and it is only partially recovering today.

Laws of restriction and correction we have, but they are too often looked upon as applicable to the other fellow and not to self.

Such a condition, stretching over a long period of time, affords the bolsheviki to spread resentment and discontent, two important factors which are preliminaries to every revolution.

Instead of smiling at the learned Norwegian who warns us of impending evil we would do well to give his words serious consideration, lest the time come when it is too late to consider.

WHERE ARE OUR BRAINS?

Recently the government contracted with England to build a giant dirigible for our navy. It collapsed on its trial trip and nearly fifty American and English airmen were killed.

Life paid the penalty of faulty construction.

We can understand the whys and wherefores of faulty construction, but we can not understand why we should have a dirigible built in England at an expense of two million dollars when it could just as well be made here at home. This sort of thing seems especially aggravating when we think of the five or six millions of men out of employment in this country. It may be true that none of these men could build dirigibles, but the money would be kept in circulation at home, and every little helps.

Are we deteriorating in constructive ability? Must we admit that England, with the best of her manhood under the sod, is even yet able to construct dirigibles where we can not?

PRESIDENTIAL SPEEDING

Through the means of a national conference the president hopes to secure action that will speed up industry this winter and relieve our six millions of people who are now unemployed.

We commend the action of the president. May his reach be long and his punch hard, to the end that it may bear much fruit.

We trust he will not cease his activity until every man has a job, until every back is well clothed and every larder is well filled.

It is inconceivable that in this land of plenty there should be so many who have nothing.

If the president will start the speeding others may lend a hand.

Don't be surprised if England gives in. Don't be surprised if Ireland backs down. Don't be surprised if they compromise. Don't be surprised if they fight it out to a finish. Don't be surprised at anything. Only the Lord knows what the end will be over there.

A government officer has invented a gas that is more deadly than anything else known, and a new shell that will pierce any armor is among the federal secrets. But neither of them have made the least dent in congress.

A consignment of lumber was recently shipped from a western state to Chicago, valued at $300. The freight charges are said to have been $800.

An inquisitive cuss wants us to tell him what constitutes a real statesman. But we can't. They ain't real any more.

Some people modestly disclaim any claims to greatness, but they become mightily peeved if you agree with them.

We agree with the Bible that it is better to give than to receive—especially if it is a punch on the jaw.

Still, there is some satisfaction in spending one's last dollar. It affords an opportunity to begin all over again.

Rich men often become voluble over their first dollar, but preserve a discreet silence regarding their last.

Uncle Sam favors world disarmament and the rest of the world favors the disarmament of Uncle Sam.

Milwaukee has put one over on the other enterprising cities of the U. S. A. It has a girl bandit.

"Justice is blind," we proudly declaim. We might also add that it is often deaf and dumb.

Funny, perhaps, but every time we buy a loaf of bread we have to "cough up the dough."

In the end people who get something for nothing often pay for more than they get.

Some men achieve distinction by "spilling the beans"—others by gathering them in.

People who crave smoking in this life shouldn't object to it in the next.

All men know a few things, but no one knows less than the other fellow.

A diplomat never calls another man a liar. He only proves it.

Stories of Great Scouts

By Elmo Scott Watson

THE EXPLOIT OF PIONEER SCOUT ANDREW POE

Andrew and Adam Poe, two brothers, were scouts in the pioneer days of Ohio. One day when the Poe brothers were leading a party on the trail of a band of Indians who had raided the settlements, they left their men to try to locate the savages. The brothers became separated. On the bank of a river Andrew came upon a giant Wyandot chief and a smaller Indian who were standing with their rifles cocked but looking in another direction.

Poe's rifle missed fire when he shot at the chief and the Indians at once discovered him. Before they could shoot, the scout sprang upon them, seizing both around the neck. The small Indian jerked loose first and while the chief held Poe, his companion tried to get in a death blow with his tomahawk. Andrew allowed him to come close. Then with one mighty kick he planted his foot in the Indian's stomach, hurling him backward and knocking the hatchet from his hand.

When the little Indian got his breath back and recovered his tomahawk, he advanced to the attack again and succeeded in wounding Poe in the arm. A second later the scout pulled himself from the grasp of the chief, seized one of the Indians' guns and shot the warrior as he advanced to attack him a third time. Poe was no longer fighting against odds and he immediately attacked the chief.

The ground was wet and slippery. In another moment the Indian and the white man, locked in each other's arms, fell into the water and each began trying to drown the other. Finally Poe seized his enemy by the scalp lock and held his head under water until he believed the chief was dead.

When he released his hold, however, the redskin renewed the struggle. By this time they were fighting in deep water. Seemingly at the same time both thought of the one loaded rifle on the shore and both started to swim to get it. The Indian was the better swimmer and reached the bank first.

As the chief picked up the gun, Poe turned back in the water and began diving to avoid a bullet. The chief, however, had picked up an empty gun, the one with which Andrew had killed the little Indian, and before the Wyandot could get the loaded weapon, Adam Poe, who had heard the shot came running to his brother's rescue. He fired and the Indian fell dead.

Truthful.

In Boston they tell of a Dr. Reed who, in his time, was one of the prominent physicians of that city. His large practice included many patients outside the city limits and these he visited in his buggy.

One day, it appears, Dr. Reed bought a new horse, with which he was greatly pleased until he discovered that the beast had an insurmountable objection to bridges of all kinds and could not be made to cross one. Now, inasmuch as at that period it was necessary to cross certain bridges in order to reach any one of the surrounding towns, the doctor decided to sell the horse. He did not think it at all necessary to mention the animal's peculiarity, but was much too honest to misrepresent him. Accordingly, after due cogitation, he inserted in a local paper the following advertisement:

"For Sale—A chestnut horse, warranted sound and kind. The only reason for selling is that the owner is obliged to leave Boston."—Philadelphia Ledger.

BANK OF SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO WINS CASE AFTER LONG CONTEST

Information was received yesterday that the supreme court had denied a rehearing in the case of Bank of South San Francisco vs. Pike, the matter thus terminating in a victory for the bank.

This case has occupied the attention of the courts for a number of years. Originally a loan of $5000 was made by the Bank of South San Francisco to the American Steel Casting Company then engaged in business in South San Francisco and operating a plant where the American Marble and Mosaic Company now has its plant. Boaz D. Pike and George S. Pike were guarantors upon the note representing the loan. When the note became due demand was made on the company and the Pikes for payment. The American Steel Casting Company became insolvent and the Pikes, by deed of gift, transferred their beautiful residence property on Sacramento street, San Francisco, to their daughter, Edna Laura Pike. Suit was brought upon the note and judgment was entered by default against the American Steel Casting Company and the Pikes. An attachment was levied against the property as that of Boaz D. Pike and George S. Pike, notwithstanding the transfer, on the theory that this transfer was made to defraud the bank and that, in reality, the property remained that of the parents, although apparently in the name of the daughter.

Subsequently the property was sold under execution and the bank became the purchaser. A suit was then commenced to quiet the title of the bank to the property. It became necessary to prove that the Pikes were insolvent at the time the deed of gift was made to their daughter. In gathering the evidence, for this purpose it became necessary to investigate the affairs of a number of corporations in which the Pikes had been interested.

About two years ago the superior court of San Francisco gave judgment against the Pikes. They appealed to the supreme court. The appeal was heard by the district court of appeal and the decision of the lower court was sustained. A rehearing of the case was asked for in the supreme court and refused.

J. W. Coleberd and John D. Willard represented the Bank of South San Francisco.

Those who are in a "run down" condition will notice that Catarrh bothers them much more than when they are in good health. This fact proves that Catarrh is a local disease, it is greatly influenced by constitutional conditions. San Bruno

CELEBRATION SEPT. 9 REMARKABLE SUCCESS

Large, Beautiful Parade, Followed by Exercises and Games; Woodmen Win Cross-Country Marathon.

San Bruno's celebration of Admission Day Friday will long be remembered as one of the most successful affairs of its kind ever taking place in the city. Financially it added considerably to the funds of all the different organizations and activities.

The parade, which formed on Angus avenue in front of Carpenters' Hall, started practically on time, and was undoubtedly the most complete affair of the kind ever given by the citizens of San Bruno. J. Ledwith acted as leader of the parade, with F. Valentine marshal.

The Holsom Bread Company's band turned out in strong force and presented a pleasing sight in their attractive uniforms, and by the music they discoursed added immensely to the pleasure and success of the affair. The school children made a creditable showing, and their teacher, Mrs. Lindsey, who carried off the prize offered for the best section, is certainly to be congratulated on the showing they made, their "49" caravan being exceedingly well thought out and exemplified.

On the grounds of Uncle Tom's Cabin the parade broke up, and the exercises of the day commenced with an eloquent oration from Charles McEnerney, grand trustee of the Native Sons of the Golden West.

The great event of the day was the five-mile cross-country race, competed for by the Woodmen of the World and the Young Men's Institute, both organizations putting seven men into the field for the event, the prize for which was a large silver cup donated by Mayor A. S. W. Grundy. A small replica of the cup became the property of the first runner in; the larger cup has to be run for three years in succession to become the property of any organization competing.

This race proved exciting, the first to come in being William Hoops. Hoops finished five minutes ahead of the second man to cross the tape, and fainting from overexertion on reaching his dressing room. He very soon recovered, however. August Martinelli came in second and Stephen Lombardi third, while the race on points was won by the Woodmen of the World team, which made the lowest number. The comic walking match between Les Empey and Ode Osborne proved a scream and resulted in practically a tie, as it appropriately should, seeing that the two contestants were tied together around the ankle by a rope about eight inches in length. Four times they went around the stage erected for the racing, every round of which saw first one and then the other and oftentimes both rolling in the dust and picking up the various impedimenta with which they were loaded down.

The list of winners of all contests follows:
Best section of parade—Children's 49 group.
Best decorated bicycle—Walter Ricci Jr.
Most attractive individuals in parade—Mrs. Leone Ludwig, Les Empey, Ode Osborne and Al Wedell.
Best decorated auto—Mr. Manzi.
Races—Lester Empey, Ralph Marshall, Herbert Mackey, Geoffrey Curran, Fred Ward, Charles Brose, Morton Reynolds, Robert E. Reed, Dean Beckner, Mrs. Gibouret, Mrs. Mueller, Martha Brittain, Edith Figone, Elsie Ehrmann, Inez Ruzic, Lella Ledwith, Constance McLeod, Ode Osborne, Les Empey, Donald McLean, Alfred Grundy.
The tug of war has not yet been decided, but will be finally pulled off at the San Bruno parish picnic next Sunday. So far, however, it has resulted in the Yeomen beating the Woodmen of the World in a contest that lasted thirty-five minutes.

Work on the streets was commenced Wednesday morning by the Municipal Improvement Company, the start being made on Huntington avenue.

GAUDETTE TO BE BROUGHT BACK TO THIS COUNTY SOON

Former City Marshal Gaudette, it is reported, is to be brought back here in the near future to answer to several charges. It is reported that when he left San Bruno a number of unpaid bills were left by him. He is believed to be in Chicago at present.

CITY TAX RATE IS FIXED BY TRUSTEES

New Rate Is $1.10 Per $100 Valuation; City Attorney Informs Board Recall Petition Void Under Law.

A quiet meeting of the city trustees was held Wednesday night, the full board being present with the exception of Harry Palmer.

After the reading of the minutes, routine business was taken up with an application being presented on behalf of Mr. Wall of the Municipal Improvement Company, requesting that the San Bruno Park award be put over for at least another thirty days, as it would take at least that time to know definitely whether or not the bonds would be taken up by certain financial interests. On motion of Trustee Kane, the matter went over till the next meeting.

Marshal Meehan notified the board that he had appointed Harry Love, Frank Valentine, and Captain Kidd as deputies, the latter as traffic officer. The board endorsed such appointments. The marshal requested he be allowed to purchase for his office the following equipment, which was also acceded to: Two pistols, one sawed-off shotgun, four stars, three pairs handcuffs, four clubs. Meehan also asked the board to endorse his action in appointing Miss Nettie Willits, city clerk, as deputy tax collector. This the board did.

The marshal next took up the matter of equipping his office with a complete camera outfit for the taking of finger prints, which he stated would cost in the neighborhood of $160. The trustees stated they realized the importance of such equipment, but that the state of the city treasury did not at this time admit of the purchase, but if about the new year he would again make the application they would give the matter every consideration.

Dance permits were given San Bruno parish for a dance and picnic Sunday, the 18th, at Uncle Tom's Cabin, and Bellevue Tavern for a picnic and dance Sunday, September 15th, to be given by the Alemania Club of San Francisco.

An application to be appointed poundmaster was made by Tony Figueredo. The board questioned the applicant as to whether he knew that the office was paid by fees allowed by the city ordinance. He replied he did, and on proving to the board that he was in a position to take care of animals impounded, the appointment was made. This means a strict enforcement of the stray laws.

The matter of a runaway at the firehouse was left to the city engineer.

Messrs. Ochs & Bowers of the Cabin Garage notified the board through Trustee O'Connor that one of the batteries on the fire truck was useless, and offered to put a new one in which they had in stock. A resolution was passed authorizing Trustee O'Connor to issue an order for the battery.

The tax rate for the ensuing year was taken up and fixed at $1 on the $100, with a special assessment of 10 cents per hundred to make up for delinquencies existing. President Grundy called attention to the fact that this rate would cause a deficit of some $10,000 to be taken care of in some way, and stated he could not see how the matter could be adjusted by such a levy. On roll call the rate was passed by the following vote: Ayes, O'Connor, Smith and Kane; noes, Grundy; absent, Palmer.

A resolution was passed to the effect that the answer to the demurrer to the recall petition be amended so as to include the further reason for not calling such election that the act had not been complied with in so far that the petition did not set forth either the streets or street numbers of those signing the petition, as specifically provided by law, and that while it was not possible to give numbers, streets could and should have been given. The city attorney informed the board that this action was necessary, as the petition, in his opinion, was absolutely void by reason of such omission. This case, Judge Davis informed the board, would come up in Judge Buck's court at Redwood City on Friday at 1:30 p. m.

A permit was granted the Union Oil Company to reconstruct the manhole on San Mateo avenue in order to conform to the grade.

Miss Beatrice Noyer was operated upon for appendicitis Tuesday morning by Dr. F. Holmes Smith at the Mills Memorial Hospital, San Mateo.

RUNAWAY GIRL LOCATED IN CITY BY MARSHAL MEEHAN

Marshal A. G. Meehan accomplished a piece of work last Friday for which considerable credit is due him. He was notified by the guardians of a young girl in this city that she had been inveigled into an auto by two young men and taken away from town. She left home without any money and her guardians were much worried. Meehan at once got busy and went to San Francisco in search of the missing girl. He searched several dance halls without success, but finally located her on Market street. After considerable persuasion the officer induced her to return home with him. Once, it is reported, the girl tried to escape while in a restaurant getting food, of which she was much in need.

TOMMY WALL ALSO RAN.

Every one knows Tommy Wall, but every one doesn't know that Tommy also ran and came in on the five-mile cross-country race on Admission Day, but such is the case. On the start of the race a number of the friends of the contestants started out with the runners, but all save Tommy returned to the picnic grounds after running at most a couple of miles. He, however, manfully finished the course, and came in an hour and a half after the last contestant was in. As an exhibition of grit and sportsmanship we doff our hat to Tommy, a future champion, for of such stuff are champions made. As a result of this race Tommy was confined to his bed for two days, but after that time he was about again as bright and smiling as ever.

CITY HOODLUMS MIX IN FIGHT DURING FRIDAY'S CELEBRATION

The only thing to mar the complete success of the Admission Day celebration was the fight that took place during the dance at California Hall about midnight, and which was brought about by some half dozen toughs from Telegraph Hill, San Francisco, known among denizens of that section of the bay city as the "Forty Thieves."

The fight, caused by the imbibing of illicit liquor, was started by the gang without any shadow of excuse, and resulted in their being thrown out of the hall, one being literally thrown down the stairs into the street, where they continued the fight among themselves.

The young toughs, who were finally ejected by Deputies Harry Love and Frank Valentine, gave it out as their intention to return and finish their fight Sunday during the progress of the picnic to be given in the grounds of Uncle Tom's Cabin, but they will be well advised to think twice before doing so, as Marshal Meehan is a hard man to go up against, and there is no doubt but that in the event of their carrying out their intention some of them will find it necessary to go to the hospital for repairs.

LOCALS

Charles McEnerney's speech on Admission Day was a gem of oratory, and was listened to with wrapt attention by all present.

Phil Clark, a well-known citizen of this city, has received the appointment as night watchman at the Union Oil Company's new station.

The San Bruno Lumber and Supply Company has been awarded the lumber contract for the new oil station to be built by the Union Oil Company at the intersection of the state highway and San Mateo avenue.

All organizations taking part in Friday's celebration added materially to their exchequer, the volunteer firemen doing so approximately $100, while the Daddies' Club, after paying all expenses, will have close upon $100 to divide among the various organizations taking part.

Several men were put to work Wednesday on the road where the new Union Oil station is to be built. When the station is finished it is expected to be one of the finest stations in this part of the state.

Putting Evans Out of the Way

By MURIEL BLAIR

(© 1921, Western Newspaper Union.)

Gray hairs?—yes, plenty of them, as you see. Came in a night, too. You have read of that in many an eerie tale of fiction. Let me tell you one where it was an actual occurrence. I am the man to tell it, for I was one of the main actors in the life drama—very nearly a tragedy.

I was young and foolish in those old days, especially so over the Gladdons girls, Mary and Bertha. The latter was the younger sister, but I favored Mary. She was sweet, gentle, gracious. Bertha was just the reverse—rompish and a coquette. A lover's tiff with Mary caused an estrangement. She was only pained but—silent.

Bertha was ready for any innocent frolic. I made up to her, and it pleased her fickle nature to boast that she had stolen her sister's suitor away. Perhaps she liked me, but when Ross Evans came along she changed her mind.

Young Evans was a fine, manly fellow, but I was in such mood that discontent with my work, jealousy, conceit and a miserable chagrin over Mary's calm, quiet ways combined to make me bitter and vengeful. Evans had come to work in the drafting department of the great Vulcan Iron works. He was quite bright, clever and accommodating, but the first time I saw him in Bertha's company, and noted the mischievous twinkling in her bright eyes, I marked him down for my worst enemy.

There was a young fellow named Dave Tompkins, who was a member of the reckless group I was trailing with. In some way he fathomed my feelings regarding the Gladdons. One evening when we were together he made the casual remark:

"I suppose you feel none too kindly towards that fellow Evans?"

"Kindly!" I snarled. "I hate him!"

"Then maybe you and I can do some business together?" intimated Tompkins, with a wicked laugh.

"I'll admit he's smart and steady," said Tompkins, "but if he was out of the way I'd get the job. The company knows I'm good at it; they couldn't find a more experienced man, so—will you help me give Evans a vacation?"

"How do you mean?" I asked.

It was a precarious scheme that Tompkins proposed.

"Some good friends are willing to assist me in getting my rights," was the plausible way in which he put it.

We caught Evans one night just as he was coming out of the works. He was promptly seized, tied hand and foot, and gagged.

"Quick!" said Tompkins. "We've got to hide him. There's No. 6 cupola. It's dead. Run him up the ladder and throw him into the chute."

No. 6 was a furnace supposedly blown out for lack of working force. At the top platform was the coal chute which fed into the melting pot. Politics had run high in the district the week previous, and a crowd had hung the effigy of a disliked candidate there two days before. We knew our ground well. We rudely dumped our victim through the feeding hole, the others scurried to cover, and I crouched down on the platform.

I was wicked enough to think how scared and uncomfortable Evans must be. It was perhaps the end of five minutes, when with a shock my vengeful emotion was changed to wild horror.

There was a rasping clang. From below some one had pulled the feeding chain. A blinding glare from the red hot furnace singed me as the fuel began to slip down. I saw a rolling, tumbling form shoot with the moving mass and plunge into that molten void. One blood-curdling shriek rent the air. Clang! went the shut-off again, and I fell flat on the platform—a writhing, terrified wretch.

I've a dim memory of coming back to the village. Some powerful influence drew me to the home where Evans lived. A light in a room I knew to be his led me to took in.

It was to view, tranquil and visible in all form and substance the man I had murdered! Then the last shock, and I fell, crashing helplessly through the window.

When I came back to life, I lay on a couch. Bending over me, kindly and anxious, was Evans. He smiled, sadly, and gently stroked my whitened hair, with the pathetic words:

"Poor, poor fellow!"

I lay like a man of stone until I learned how he had escaped. When thrown into the cupola bin, his clothing had caught on a tool hook. It was the effigy used to ridicule the political candidate that I had seen rolling down into that molten furnace, though it was Evans' own yell I had heard as the hopper opened beneath where he hung.

Ross Evans did something more than nurse me—he brought Mary Gladdon to my bedside. You can realize that I was in a state of mind to drift forever out of the bad rut I had got into. Full-grown man that I was, to the woman I truly loved I sobbed out my gratitude and remorse.

JOHNSON GETS DECISION OVER OLD OPPONENT

Floyd Johnson received the referee's decision over Sailor Al Hoag in a four-round bout at Oakland Wednesday night.

Hoag is the fellow who handed Johnson a trimming at Sacramento several weeks ago. The latter claimed he was not well at the time and in no condition to do himself justice, declaring that if given another chance he could turn the tables on Hoag. He got his chance Wednesday night, and the result proved he was correct.

The San Francisco papers are devoting considerable space to Johnson's rise in the profession and his championship possibilities, and the consensus of opinion is that he has run out of opponents in the local four-round game and will have to seek other fields where longer bouts are permitted and suitable opponents are available.

In announcing Wednesday night's program one sport writer referred to Johnson as the "clever young colored chap who has been making such a sensational showing in the American Legion shows." Johnson's friends are wondering where he got that "colored stuff."

"Noo, tell me," said the Scotch customer, "is this hair restorer certain to make hair grow on a bald head?"

"Yes, sir," said the druggist. "It will accomplish it in twenty-four hours."

"Weel," remarked the other, "that's nae long tae wait. Just rub a little on yer ain bald place and I'll come in the morning an' see if yer spekin' the truth."—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

GOING ON A VACATION?

We suggest that if you are going on a vacation or are going to be away from home for any reason whatsoever that it is far safer—and of course many times cheaper in the end—to rent a Safe Deposit Box in which to store your bonds, stock certificates, mortgages, insurance policies and other valuable papers together with your silver and jewelry.

During your absence, should fire attack your home—and an insurance policy does not provide against loss by fire of any of the above—or should your home receive an unwelcome visitor in the person of a burglar, it will be a relief to come home and know that your valuables are safe in the vaults of this bank.

A Safe Deposit Box will provide protection not only during vacation times but through all the year as well. You can rent one for a year for LESS THAN A CENT A DAY.

WAKE UP, JUNIORS

The last-year sophomores had as their motto, "Watch Our Smoke." This year the editor is afraid they have forgotten to adopt their motto or have fallen asleep. The junior class is now the only class in the school without a representative for the Blue and White. The editor has been asking them to elect a representative since school reopened, but they fail to do so. If they can't elect a representative to help the school paper, what can they do?

Wake up, juniors, and elect a class representative for the Blue and White.

THE LOW FRESHMEN.

The low freshmen held a class meeting last Thursday at 12:45. The object of this meeting was to elect members to look after the different class organizations and to form a constitution.

The freshmen enjoyed the party which was given in their honor, and most of them will agree with the low freshmen representative to this paper that it was quite a shocking affair!

SENIOR CANDY SALE.

The seniors were well patronized in the candy sale they held Tuesday. They were nearly sold out at noon-time and made a considerable amount of money.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL GAME.

The girls on the basketball team will play their first game of the season with the San Mateo girls on the San Mateo courts. The girls expect to play many games during the coming year.

THE STUDENT BODY MEETING.

On Monday, September 12th, the first student body meeting of this semester was held, with Mr. McMills in the chair.

A few standing bills were ordered paid. Thomas Doak was elected boys' business manager. The meeting adjourned after the usual business was transacted.

SENIORS' MEETING.

The seniors' class held a meeting Tuesday, September 6th, to elect officers for this year. The following was the result: Mr. McMills, president; Grace Robinson, vice-president; Marguerite Kiessling, secretary; Rosalind Gsell, treasurer; Miss Clifford, faculty-in-chief.

It was decided that a candy sale be held Tuesday, September 13th, each one bringing four pounds of sugar and meeting at the high school Sunday at 3 o'clock to make candy.

WE WISH TO THANK OUR PATRONS

The senior candy sale was a success, and we wish to thank the teachers and students who patronized it.

JUNIOR CLASS MEETING.

The junior class meeting was held Tuesday at 12:30. The meeting was called to order by President Dunlap. Election of officers was held, to replace the officers who have left school. The following were elected: Robert Keller, secretary-treasurer; Orman New, vice-president; Alexis James to staff of Blue and White. A committee for class pins was appointed. Those on the committee were: Miss Harmon, Elmer Vaccari, and Thomas Doak.

JUNIORS JUST WOKE UP.

The editor has said that the juniors had fallen asleep. Now this will have to be taken back, as they have just elected their representative.

BIG FOOTBALL GAME;

DUNS VS. VOCS

Mr. Adams, football coach, divided the football team into two squads, with Charles Duns, captain of the Duns, and Elmer Vaccari, captain of the Vocs.

PRACTICAL RECIPES

GOOD WAFFLES AND MUFFINS MADE WITH COOKED RICE

One of the easiest and most palatable ways of disposing of a small amount of left-over cooked rice is to use it for hot muffins or waffles in combination with cornmeal or wheat flour, suggests the United States Department of Agriculture.

Rice Waffles

1 cup cooked rice.
1 cup wheat flour.
1 teaspoon salt.
1½ teaspoons baking powder.
½ cup sweet milk.
3 eggs.
1 teaspoon butter, drippings, or other fat.

Press the rice through a coarse sieve. Sift the flour, the salt, and the baking powder together, then add the milk, the yolks of eggs, the rice, and the melted fat, and finally fold in the beaten whites of eggs. Have the waffle iron hot and well greased. This recipe may also be used for rice fritters by adding one tablespoon of sugar and frying in deep fat. If preferred, the grains of rice may be left whole.

Rice and Corn Muffins

2 cups cornmeal.
1 tablespoon sugar.
½ teaspoon salt.
2½ teaspoons baking powder.
1 cup cooked rice.
2 cups sweet milk.
1 egg.
1 tablespoon fat.

Sift the meal, the sugar, the salt, and the baking powder together. Mix the rice, the milk, the well-beaten egg, and the melted fat; then add the meal and other dry ingredients. Bake the mixture in well-greased muffin pans. This will make fourteen to eighteen average muffins.

MILK AS A SOURCE OF ENERGY AND PROTEIN

It is a commonplace saying that milk is a perfect food. This may be taken to mean, say specialists of the United States Department of Agriculture, that it contains, first, materials that children need for growth; second, materials that all need for fuel, to need for the upkeep and repair of their body machinery; and, third, materials that all need for fuel, to provide them with heat and with the energy necessary for work. Such a statement should not be understood to mean that milk has these ingredients in such proportions that it can serve satisfactorily as an exclusive food for a grown person or even for a child. To the growing child, however, no other food can satisfactorily replace milk as a part of the diet. Each child should take a full quart of milk each day if possible, or at least a pint without fail.

While a healthy adult could live on milk alone for a considerable time, the digestive organs do their work better with at least some solid food. Too large a quantity of milk alone—at least four or five quarts a day—would be required. Nevertheless, milk is much more than a beverage. The following table shows that milk ranks high among our common food materials as a source both of energy and of protein.

Protein and Energy Value of Milk
Protein value—1 quart (32 ounces) of milk contains as much protein as: 7 ounces of sirloin steak, 6 ounces of round steak, 8.6 ounces of fowl, 4.3 average eggs.

Energy value—1 quart (32 ounces) of milk contains as much energy as: 11.3 ounces of sirloin steak, 14.9 ounces of round steak, 14.5 ounces of fowl, 9 average eggs.

Milk and milk products can be used interchangeably with meats and eggs as a source of protein. A quart of milk contains as much protein as five ounces of dried beans or a twelve-ounce loaf of bread, and while the legumes and cereals are considered a cheap source of protein it should be remembered that their proteins are not so completely utilized for tissue building as those in milk, meat, and egg.

SUBSTITUTE FOR SYRUPS.

The first thought in the disposal of sour milk on hand is usually cottage cheese. The whey that remains after draining the cheese may be used in bread making, and as a drink for invalids. Whey honey, for which a recipe is given, is delicious to spread on waffles or pancakes, or as a pudding sauce.

Whey Honey

1 cup whey.
1-3 cup sugar.
½ cup corn syrup.
Mix whey, syrup, and sugar and boil the mixture till it is of the consistency of strained honey. This syrup will keep indefinitely if properly bottled.

There seems to be more misery in the world than happiness, because misery is a good advertiser and happiness isn't.

Business First.

The rector met the church warden just before the morning service and beckoned to him.

"Mr. Grimes," he said, "we had better take up the collection before beginning the sermon this morning."

"Very well, if you wish it," returned the warden. "But what is your reason?"

He controlled his feelings very well, for he was very conservative and hated innovation.

Canada received 147,502 immigrants from 64 different countries last year as compared with 117,565 the previous year.

Compressed air for industrial purposes is piped through many Paris streets just as gas and water are in other cities.

But the rector was adamant.

"I think it will be wiser," he remarked. "The fact is, I am going to preach on the subject of economy."—Los Angeles Times.

There Are Others.

In a man's life there are three tragedies. The first is when he decides he's too old for Lord Fauntleroy curls and mamma decides otherwise because they're so cute. The second is when the high school Beatrice he can't live without marries and he doesn't die. The third is his shape in a bathing suit.—Boston Transcript.
